

MPA Visual Arts Scholarship

The MPA Visual Arts Scholarship awards $2000 per year for the duration of recipient's enrollment at Miri Piri Academy, according to the following criteria:

1. Demonstrated skill and dedication to visual arts in scholarship application.
2. Demonstrated financial need as defined by eligibility for the general Financial Aid program.
3. Expected maintenance of a 3.0 GPA and rank 2 in the merit system each year.

Application Guidelines:

Visual Arts Scholarship applicants must submit the following with their application:

- 3 original works of photography, painting, drawing, pottery, or sculpture, including a 100 word explanation of the process, medium and ideas exemplified in each work of art.
- A single page resume detailing art classes, contests entries or other relevant experiences that demonstrate the applicant's dedication to visual arts.

Visual Arts Scholarship recipients are expected to contribute their talents and skills to enhance the school's culture, resources and positive group experiences for the entire student body.

MPA Music Scholarship

The MPA Music Scholarship awards $2000 per year for the duration of recipients enrollment at Miri Piri Academy, according to the following criteria:

1. Demonstrated skill and dedication to music arts in scholarship application.
2. Demonstrated financial need as defined by eligibility for the general Financial Aid program.
3. Expected maintenance of a 3.0 GPA and rank 2 in the merit system each year.

Application Guidelines:

Music Arts Scholarship applicants must submit the following with their application:

- 2-3 recordings of instrumental or vocal music in which the applicant performed solo or played a substantial leading role in the recording, including a 100 word explanation of the process, instrumentation and ideas exemplified in each recording.
- A single page resume detailing music classes, contests entries or other relevant experiences that demonstrate the applicant's dedication to vocal or instrumental music.

Music Arts Scholarship recipients are expected to contribute their talents and skills to enhance the school's culture, resources and positive group experiences for the entire student body.

MPA Seva Scholarship

The MPA Seva Scholarship awards $2000 per year for the duration of recipient's enrollment at Miri Piri Academy, according to the following criteria:

1. Demonstrated dedication to social justice and community service in scholarship application.
2. Demonstrated financial need as defined by eligibility for the general Financial Aid program.
3. Expected maintenance of a 3.0 GPA and rank 2 in the merit system each year.

Application Guidelines:

Seva Scholarship applicants must submit the following with their application:

- 500 words detailing the applicants understanding of how their own experiences in community service have impacted the development of their character, values and goals for the future.
- A single page listing of community service experiences and projects the applicant has participated in, as well as the role they played in these service projects.

Seva Scholarship recipients are expected to demonstrate commitment and creativity in developing and participating in seva projects on campus during their enrollment.

MPA Athletic Scholarship

The MPA Athletic Scholarship awards $2000 per year for the duration of recipient's enrollment at Miri Piri Academy, according to the following criteria:

1. Demonstrated dedication to athletic participation and growth in scholarship application.
2. Demonstrated financial need as defined by eligibility for the general Financial Aid program.
3. Expected maintenance of a 3.0 GPA and rank 2 in the merit system each year.

Application Guidelines:

Athletic Scholarship applicants must submit the following with their application:

- 500 words detailing how the applicants training and participation in any form of athletic skill has impacted the development of their character, values and goals for the future.
- A single page listing of athletic training, team participation, competitions and other relevant experiences the applicant has participated in that demonstrate the applicant's dedication to athletics.

Athletic Scholarship recipients are expected to demonstrate active commitment and enthusiastic participation on athletic teams and in competitions on campus during their enrollment.

MPA Academic Scholarship

The MPA Academic Scholarship awards $2000 per year for the duration of recipient's enrollment at Miri Piri Academy, according to the following criteria:

1. Demonstrated dedication to academic excellence and learning in scholarship application.
2. Demonstrated financial need as defined by eligibility for the general Financial Aid program.
3. Expected maintenance of a 3.0 GPA and rank 2 in the merit system each year.

Application Guidelines:

Academic Scholarship applicants must submit the following with their application:

- School records from the prior school year indicating a 90% average or equivalent.
- 500 words detailing the applicant's academic education and how their academic interests or specific academic projects have impacted the development of their character, values and goals for the future.

Academic Scholarship recipients are expected to demonstrate commitment, curiosity and dedication to learning in the classroom during their enrollment.

MPA Martial Arts Scholarship

The MPA Athletic Scholarship awards $2000 per year for the duration of recipient's enrollment at Miri Piri Academy, according to the following criteria:

1. Demonstrated dedication to martial arts participation and growth in scholarship application.
2. Demonstrated financial need as defined by eligibility for the general Financial Aid program.
3. Expected maintenance of a 3.0 GPA and rank 2 in the merit system each year.

Application Guidelines:

Martial Arts Scholarship applicants must submit the following with their application:

- 500 words detailing how the applicants training and participation in any form of martial arts has impacted the development of their character, values and goals for the future.
- A single page listing of martial arts training, achievements, competitions and other relevant experiences the applicant has participated in that demonstrate the applicant's dedication to martial arts.

Martial Arts Scholarship recipients are expected to demonstrate active commitment and enthusiastic participation in martial arts activities and demonstrations during their enrollment.